

Monitor Audio 5 Year Warranty

Both the craftsmanship and the performance of our products (shown below) are covered by the manufacturer's warranty against manufacturing defects for the period of five years from the date of purchase, provided that the product was supplied by an authorised Monitor Audio retailer under the consumer sale agreement.

This warranty is non-transferable. This warranty takes effect from the 1st January 2017.

When purchasing Monitor Audio products, please keep your receipt of purchase safe, as this validates your warranty.
